FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Paula Wolf Founds Paulatics, LLC

Raleigh, NC – Paula A. Wolf announces the formation of Paulatics, LLC, a government affairs, political relations and political consulting firm in North Carolina.

Wolf is a highly-ranked, 14-year veteran of North Carolina politics, representing primarily nonprofit organizations before the NC General Assembly and the Executive Branch of state government. Wolf works on policy development and strategy with her clients. She also consults on various local and statewide campaigns. In this last election cycle, she was a key aide to Judge Robin Hudson, who was successful in her bid for an Associate Justice seat on the NC Supreme Court.

Wolf realized early-on the value of the Internet to engage, inform and persuade the grassroots and elected officials. She earned the nickname the “Empress of E-Mail,” for her creation of a free Internet system of listservs and her powerful use of e-mail to reach people who had never before been involved in politics and the legislative process. Paulatics, LLC specializes in building the capacity of coalition partners in the nonprofit sector to be effective participants in the political process.

Paulatics, LLC clients have included Planned Parenthood Health Systems, Inc., El Pueblo, Inc., the Yadkin-Pee Dee Lakes Project, the Dewey Square Group, the NC Center for Women in Public Service, the National Education Association, the Covenant with NC’s Children, the State Employees Association of North Carolina and the Robin Hudson Campaign Committee.
