Raleigh, NC (May 15, 2010) – The WOMEN'S FORUM of North Carolina elected its 2010-2011 officers at their 2010 Spring Conference at the NC Bar Center in Cary, NC.

President – Paula A. Wolf

Vice President/President Elect – Patricia Orrange

Past President – Supreme Court Justice Robin Hudson

Secretary – Linda Suggs

Treasurer – Valerie Fields

After the business meeting, Women's Forum members heard from an informative panel of experts on the topic, "Women and the Economy", which was followed by a lively question-and-answer time. The strength of the program was the range of professional and personal perspectives presented. The panel members were: Elaine Mejia, Project Director, NC Budget & Tax Center; Roni Boberg, Real Estate Broker, Coldwell Banker, HPW; Louisa Warren, Senior Policy Advocate, NC Justice Center; Andrea Harris, President, NC Institute of Minority Economic Development, Inc.; and Emily Egge, Vice President, Development, Builders of Hope, Inc.

The Women's Forum is an invitational, non-partisan organization of diverse women leaders of proven influence dedicated to working together to achieve equality and maintain social, economic and political power for women.
